My wedding included traditions from other cultures	My family argues over sugar, sour cream, or applesauce on latkes	I feel joy being part of a Jewish community	I've gotten hurt making Hanukkah latkes	I break a well-known Jewish stereotype
I've thought twice about identifying as Jewish in public spaces	I get lost following Hebrew in a siddur	My Bar/Bat Mitzvah experience was traumatic	I made paper chains for Sukkot in Hebrew school	I don't have family in Israel
I've lied about my Jewishness or connection to Israel when travelling	I wish I'd be asked 'Are you Jewish?' by a Chabadnik	FREE	I've heard the weirdest non-Jewish question about Jews	I'm visiting Israel for the first time
My Jewish community comes with baggage for me	I'm still unsure what Shmini Atzeret is	I practice Judaism differently than how I was raised	I've eaten at a Chabad house while travelling	I've been to Jewish summer camp
I secretly love Kosher for Pesach desserts	I don't yet feel at home in Israel	I didn't grow up with a Jewish education	I've used 10 plague puppets at a Seder	I have family members who practice another religion
